ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

La Fête de la Musique, also known as World Music Day, is an annual music celebration held on June 21, marking the summer solstice. The event encourages citizens to play music outside in public spaces and organize free concerts, promoting music accessibility to everyone. It originated in 1982 in Paris and has since expanded to over 120 countries, making it a global phenomenon. The slogan "Faites de la musique" translates to "Make music," reflecting the festival's goal to bring people together through music

POOLSIDE ACTIVITIES
